Cooman Provides Perspective on Pending “Sunshine in Litigation Act”

May 4, 2011 — In the Daily Record’s recent front page story related to the Sunshine in Litigation Act pending in Congress, Kevin Cooman was asked to provide his analysis and perspective on this proposed legislation, based on his more than 30 years of litigation experience in the state and federal courts. You may read his comments, as well as an explanation of the purpose of the law, in the full article.

McConville, Considine, Cooman & Morin PC is a full service law firm based in Rochester, New York, that has been providing high quality legal services to business and individuals since 1979. With over a dozen attorneys and a full paralegal support staff, the firm is large enough to provide the necessary expertise in a broad range of practice areas, yet small enough to allow us to devote prompt, personal attention to our clients.

Our clients are diverse. They include individuals, numerous manufacturing and service industry businesses, local governments and health care professionals and provider groups, facilities and associations. Although many of our clients are located throughout Upstate New York, we also represent clients in Downstate New York and New England. We also serve as local counsel to a number of out-of-state clients and their attorneys who have litigation pending in Western New York courts. For more information on the services provided by our firm, please contact one of our attorneys.
